Before publication of the schedule of election, i.e. notice of election, for Academic Council of the University, the Registrar shall complete the process of reserving one seat per faculty for the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes or De-Notified Tribes (Vimukta Jatis)/Nomadic Tribes or Other Backward Class category and one seat for woman, as required by the provisions of section 32(3)(g). This process of reservation shall be completed by following the below mentioned procedure.

- i) Meeting for drawing lots shall be arranged under the chairmanship of the Vice- Chancellor.
- ii) The Registrar shall publish the announcement about the date and time of meeting for the process of drawing lots, on the election portal of the university, in addition on the notice board of his office.
- iii) The registrar shall further arrange to get signatures of the person attending the meeting.
- iv) The Vice- Chancellor shall order the Registrar, to explain the process of drawing lots, to the audience attending the meeting.
- v) The Registrar shall prepare two sets of chits. In one set there shall be four chits carrying names of the four different faculties of the University. The other set shall have four chits containing the names of four different categories namely Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribe, De-notified Tribes/ Nomadic Tribes, and Other Backward Class.
- vi) The Registrar shall invite two interested persons to draw the lots from the two sets, both the persons shall simultaneously pick one chit from the allotted set. Thus if A and B are invited to pick the chits from set I (Faculty chits) and set II (Category chits), if A picks up the chit from set I containing the name of for e.g. Commerce and Management Faculty and B simultaneously picks up a chit containing the name of the category O.B.C. Then in this case one seat out of the two seats in the faculty of Commerce and Management will be reserved for the O.B.C. category. This process shall be continued for two more rounds to ascertain the reservation of one seat each in the two faculties out of the remaining three faculties. The last chit of each set without doubt will reveal the reservation of the one seat in the remaining fourth faculty.
- vii) For determining the reservation of one seat for a woman, Registrar shall prepare the set of eight chits. Out of the eight chits four chits shall carry the names of four faculties mentioning that it is for open category. The remaining four chits shall carry the names of the four different categories i.e. Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribe, VJ/NT, and O.B.C. with the names of the faculties allotted as per procedure laid down in above clauses i to vi. The Registrar shall invite one interested person to pick any one out of the eight chits.
